Favourites of the Month

My favourite book is called Mice to the Rescue by Scholastic books. It is about a mouse that goes to help people because they are super hero mice! At the start, the mouse is in their home relaxing but suddenly there is a disaster and their friends need their help! At the end of the book, the world is safe again and the super mouse invites his friends and family over for a yummy dinner.

This toy is from Toys'R'Us. It is a LOL Surprise. It is a little girl with pink and black hair. She has a pink T-shirt with sparkling glitter! I like to play with her because I can use my imagination to play games with her when I'm feeling lonely or bored. Her three friends are Super Baby, Rocker and Teacher's Pet. You should buy one too!

English Ambassadors Team: Summer Camp

Everybody had a great time at the Summer Camp in August! Students from the school and Chatteris CNETs had a day packed full of activities, which included everyone's favourite games Duck Duck Goose and Splat! All of the games made us very hungry, so we enjoyed a big lunch before moving onto the scavenger hunt. Each group was given a map with clues and the aim was to find the checkpoints the quickest!

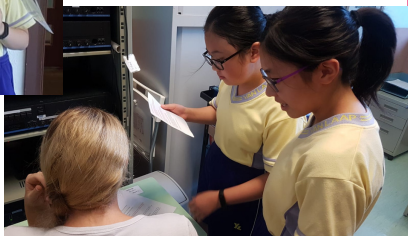

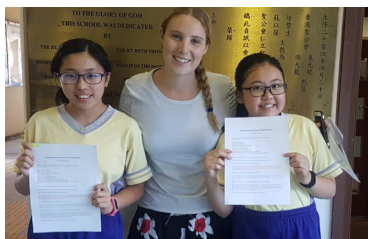

Following this, the students were given the chance to make their own English games and teach them to each other. The day ended with each student collecting a well deserved prize. Overall, all the students had a great day!

English Broadcast

The English broadcast is when children volunteer to speak into a microphone about a topic and all the children and teachers in the school can listen! The first English broadcast for this year was written and performed by Caska and Rico from 6B. They talked about setting goals at school and working hard to achieve them. At the end they chose an English song to play. If you would like to perform the English broadcast, please come see Miss Rebecca, Miss Sophia or Mr Thomas.

English Speech Festival

Earlier in the school year, P2 and P3 children had the option to try out for the 2018/2019 English Speech Festival. This is a mixed voice competition with both girls and boys who will perform in the choral speaking competition along with many other schools from around Hong Kong. The poem they will be performing is called, "I can't find my teddy bear." The competition day is on 19th November in Tai Po. Good luck!
