

We asked some of your schoolmates what their new year resolutions are. Let's hear what they had to say.

Quintin (4A): "This year I want to have more fun with my family."

Bernard (4A): "This year I want to work hard and get good grades."

Aki (4A): "This year I want to get more rest and play with friends!"

Francis (6A): "This year I want to finish programming my game and get higher scores on my exams."

P6 BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS

Jujutsu Kaisen

★★★★★

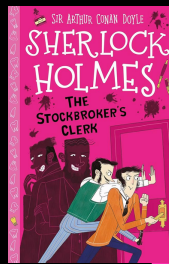

Mavis (6A) says, "I would recommend this book because Satoru Gojo is handsome and has a very special story."

Sherlock Holmes: The Stockbroker's Clerk

★★★★★

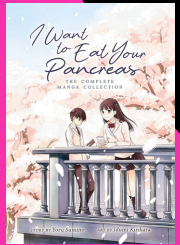

Michael (6E) says, "This book is suitable for all ages and can make us creative and more observant."

I Want to Eat Your Pancreas

★★★★★

Lloyd (6A) says, "I recommend this book because it has a really good message and tells us a lot about life."

Sherlock Holmes: The Three Students

★★★★★

Natalie (6E) says, "This book is really interesting and enjoyable for anyone to read even if your English is not the best."

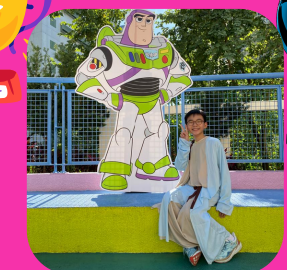

READ MORE >>

ENGLISH DAY

SPECIAL EDITION

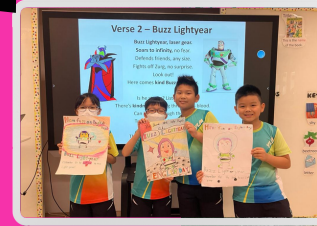

The theme of this year's English Day was all about superheroes! Students and teachers alike dressed in their best costumes and turned up for a day of fun! From Mulan to Ironman, we've got them all! Come take a look inside our day of superhero fun!

In preparation of the school's much anticipated English Day, the P3, P4 and P5 EATs were hard at work making superhero posters to decorate the school! Have a look!

The award for the best Moses costume goes to Jayven (6C) with Jeffrey (5B) coming in close second!

Students having fun at the library reading their favourite superhero books!

PICNIC DAY

After all the English Day fun, students enjoyed an exciting and relaxing day at the Tuen Mun Butterfly Beach Park. They had a great time having BBQ and playing games with Miss Ariel and Miss Phoebe.

CHRISTMAS FUN

The entire school was filled with the Christmas spirit as they sang carols and played Christmas games! P1-P3 students joined Miss Phoebe and Mr. Gavin for an exciting action story game while P4-P6 students joined Miss Ariel in Christmas charades and quizzes!

The P4 EATs performed at the Christmas Games celebration (after practising "Jingle Bells"). Thank you for your hard work!

With the help of students, Mr. Yip joins the fun!

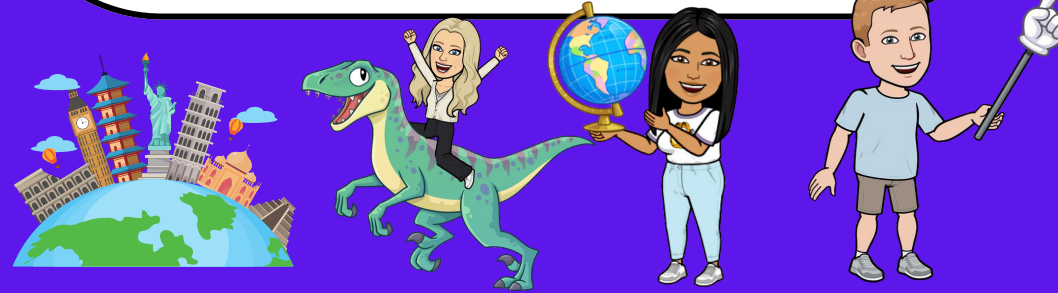

Caleb (4A) pinning the nose on Miss Ariel.

IN THE CLASSROOM

In classes, P6 students have been working very hard on their interview training for secondary school interviews. P3-P5 students have been taking trips around the world to countries like Japan, Columbia and New Zealand! Meanwhile, P1 and P2 students continue to enjoy phonics with Mr. Gavin!

DJ BROADCAST

Our morning broadcasts have been very successful with the help of P4-P6 students! This term we will continue with the help of P2-P3 students! If you want to join please let Mr. Gavin, Miss Phoebe or Miss Ariel know!

RECESS GAMES

SHARK SHARK SHARK
Swim around the ocean but when the teacher yells, "SHARK SHARK SHARK", you must jump on land to avoid being eaten by the hungry sharks!

HEADS UP
Try guessing what the card on your head is. Your friends will describe it to you!

